Reflections

You must have had the experience of walking along the edge of the sea or a lake on a summer's evening when the moonlight shimmered across the waves. Whether or not you noticed, the beam of light reflecting off the water shone directly at your feet.

It always does. No matter if there are a million people walking along the shore, each individual, when he stops and looks up, sees a shaft of light shining at his feet.

There is something in the nature of light which makes it so, just as there is something in the nature of God's being that reaches out to us—individually. When we stop and look up, the light of His love is radiantly directed at each of us, and the dark path ahead is no longer dark.

Polished Gems of St. Joseph's

'Twas my first semester at St. Joes,
And Sister Fidelis had her say.
She spoke those caring words I remember
So profoundly to this day.

"You come to us as precious gems
And then we polish you up"—
That summarizes in total,
The thrust of this college for us.

Now as graduation approaches,
the world beckons our knowledge to share.
As polished gems we'll shine brightly,
Testifying to the fact St. Joseph's cares.

Dear Graduates,

As one who has been long associated with Saint Joseph's College as student, alumna, teacher and administrator, it gives me real joy to become part of the College Community once again. I have found the several months on this Suffolk Campus filled with moments of challenge, moments of warm and concerned exchange, of intellectual stimulus and spirited discussion. I thank each one of you for your gifts shared with us at Saint Joseph's, and for the friendly learning atmosphere you have helped to create here.

I trust and I pray that your associations with faculty and fellow students will bring to your future an added enrichment and stimulus that will open each one of you to a full and rewarding life. Congratulations on this very real achievement and God bless you always!

Sincerely,

Sister Virginia
